

BERMUDA ANTHOLOGY OF CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG ADULT STORIES

Call for Submissions

The Department of Community and Cultural Affairs invites submissions for the Bermuda Anthology of Children's and Young Adult Stories to be published mid-2012. We are seeking previously unpublished stories or creative historical fiction for middle school or young adult readers (ages 9–17). The stories must feature a theme related to Bermuda or incorporate a setting, lifestyle, myth or character of Bermudian heritage. Each writer's work will be credited with a byline and a short bio, and each author will receive one free copy of the Anthology.

RULES AND REGULATIONS:

- Author must be Bermudian or a Bermuda resident.
- Please submit only original, previously unpublished work.
- Writers may submit more than one piece, but each one must meet the submission guidelines.
- If selected, you must be available to participate in any requested revisions and editing of your story for publication in the Anthology.
- All submissions will be reviewed by an independent agent for literary merit; all decisions by the agent regarding inclusion in the anthology are final.

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION:

The work must be typed, single-sided, double spaced, and be no more than 4000 words. Please indicate the title of your story on the first page, the author's name, and contact information including email address. Submissions should also include a signed copy of a release form authorising publication. Release forms can be collected from our office at #58 Court Street, 4th Floor or downloaded from our website at
