

January 2019

“Film Night: Green Days by the River Screening and Discussion”

On: Thursday 17 January, 6 p.m.
Speaker: Director Michael Mooleedhar
At: Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute

Based on the novel of the same name by the Trinidadian author Michael Anthony. Set in 1952 Trinidad, the film follows an ambitious village boy of African descent struggling with poverty and his sick father. He finds solace in a wealthy farmer of Indian descent and his captivating daughter, until he falls for a city girl, and discovers the entrapment that would shatter him.

Free tickets are available from the office and from bdatix.bm

February 2019

In Collaboration with the St. George's Foundation

“Film Night: About Bermuda: The Surveys of Bermuda and About Bermuda: Hamilton through the Years 1793-1993”

On: Thursday 7 February, 6 p.m.
At: World Heritage Centre, Penno's Wharf, St. George's

The Surveys of Bermuda: The first maps of Bermuda were drawn without land surveys – they were rough and inaccurate. Then, in 1613, a young man named Richard Norwood, sent by the Virginia Company to dive for pearls, produced the first proper map of Bermuda...

Hamilton through the Years 1793-1993: in 1815, Hamilton became the capital of Bermuda. In 1897, by an Act of Parliament, it became a city. Go back in time to trace the story of our capital city of Hamilton.

Bermudian Heartbeats

Lecture Series
April 2018 – March 2019

The Bermudian Heartbeats Lecture Series (formerly Historical Heartbeats) features a monthly event highlighting our island's rich historical and cultural heritage, for Bermuda residents and visitors alike. Unlike traditional lectures, the series uses unusual locations and varied methods of presentation for an experience that is both educational and enjoyable.

Spaces for some events are limited. Tickets are available one month in advance on a first-come, first-served basis. Please contact the Folklife Officer, Dr. Kim Dismont Robinson, on 292-1681 or kdrobinson@gov.bm for more information.
